

september - december '07 EXHIBITION PROGRAMME

Managed by Cork Civic Trust, the Cork Vision Centre @ St Peter's is an event, visitor information and exhibition space housed within a restored 18th century former church.

With constantly changing exhibitions, a model of and a film about Cork, the Centre offers visitors a warm Cork welcome and much more besides.

Cork Vision Centre @ St Peter's,

North Main Street,

Cork

t 021.427 9925

f 021.427 9987

e visioncentre@eircom.net

w www.visioncentre.com

free admission!

september - december '07 EXHIBITION PROGRAMME

7th - 27th September

PORTUGAL -

WORLD HERITAGE

Derived from a great diversity of cultural creation Instituto Camoes presents a kaleidoscope of images reflecting Portugal's historical influence in shaping the our modern world.

John William Fenton (1828 -1879), author of the first version of the Japanese National Anthem

3rd - 27th October

INHERITANCE -

HONOURING CORK'S
LEGACY

Culminating in 2010, INHERITANCE consists of a series of exhibitions of 600 portraits and biographies of Cork-born people who have influenced the world from 1700 to the present day.

2nd - 29th November

LANDSCAPES - TONY O'CONNELL

Tony O' Connell applies his passion for photography to take the viewer on a journey of exploration through a mix of urban and rural landscapes.

5th - 20th December

RIAI ANNUAL AWARDS

Presents an overview of leading contemporary architectural practice in Ireland.

Cork Vision Centre @ St Peter's is open: Tuesday - Saturday 10.00am - 17.00pm*

For all the latest exhibition information visit our web-site: www.corkvisioncentre.com

(with the exception of exhibition installation periods)